

Come explore living in Wilton, in the Norwalk River Valley, from stargazing at Huckleberry Road to serene green space at the Weir Farm National Historic Site, to manicured lawns and lush gardens, Wilton is a laid back, friendly place to make friends, and a home!

Living in Wilton

DAGNY'S
REAL ESTATE

Much more than the simple pleasures of a traditional New England town.

The picture perfect scenery and breathtaking views are everything you would expect, plus this very close knit community in Fairfield County, Connecticut is just 56 miles away from New York City!

This easy commute means Wilton has a great combination of small town living and urban accessibility.

To find out more about this charming town, the lovely homes, the superb schools and the extraordinary location,

Ask Dagny!

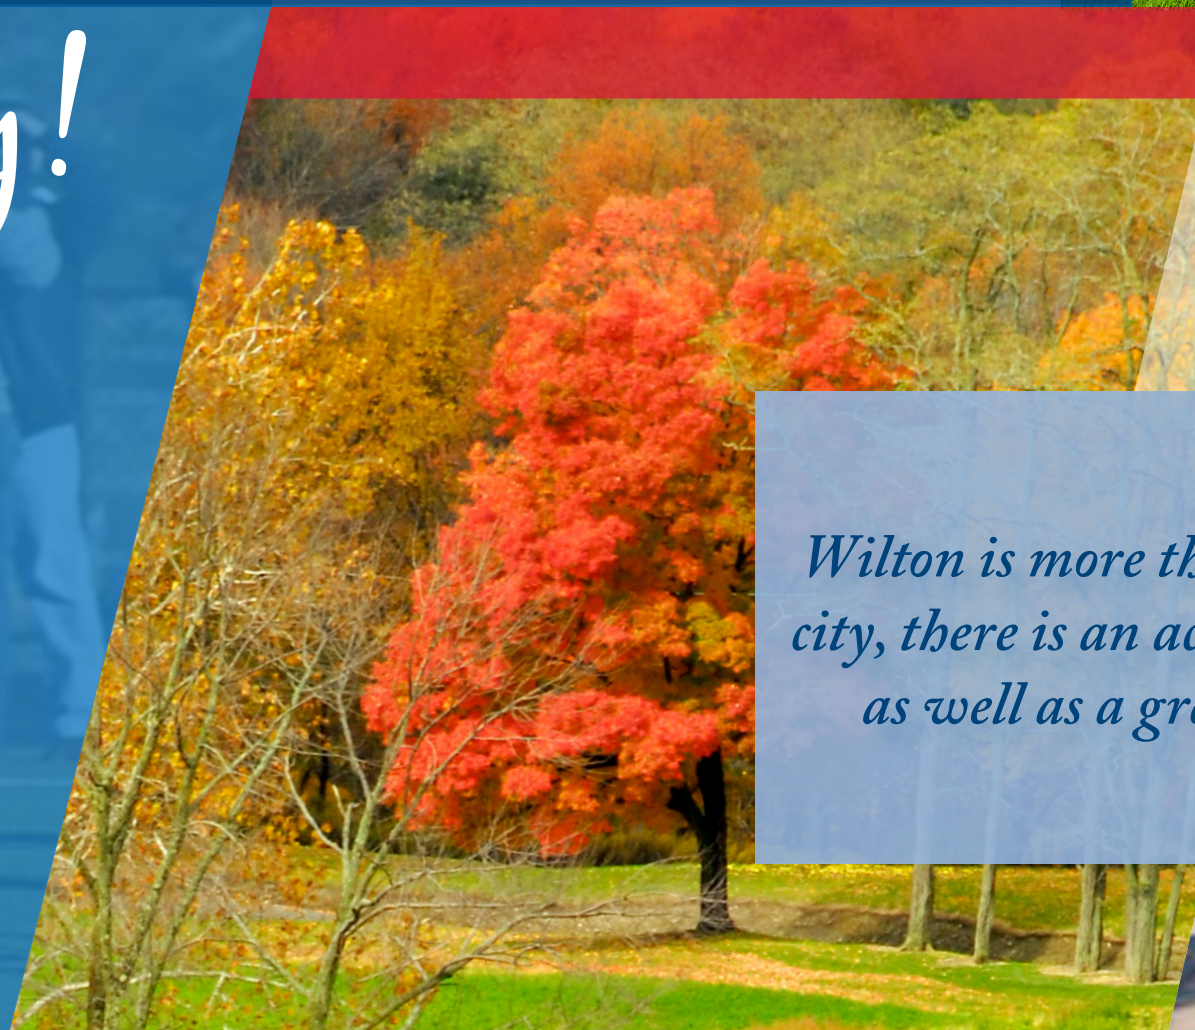

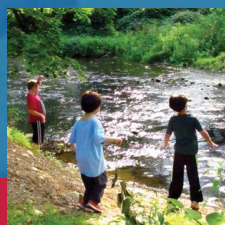

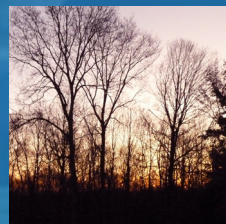

DAGNY'S
REAL ESTATE

203-858-4853

DagnyEason@gmail.com

DagnysRealEstate.com

Wilton is more than just a suburb of the big city, there is an active arts and culture scene, as well as a great mix of unique shops.

About Wilton

In Wilton it's easy to skip the City and stay in town to shop, see a play or a movie and finish up at a fantastic restaurant!

Wilton is also ideal for those who want to unwind from the City and spend their downtime swimming, walking, biking, or otherwise enjoying the open spaces and spectacular countryside.

There's a charm to being around familiar faces each day, and in Wilton you're sure to see most every resident of the town at the Bowtie Cinema or one of the Farmer's Markets or perhaps in Merwin's Meadows or on Schenck's Island! Wilton life includes the Norwalk River Valley Trail, Summer Concerts both indoor and out, a huge July 4th Celebration for the whole town, as well as the "Minks to Sinks" annual treasure hunt and the Memorial Day celebration featuring a pancake breakfast hosted by the Wilton Kiwanis.

Wilton Schools

The Wilton Public School system is dedicated to superb educational preparation and to developing student strengths in sports and the arts. The results of this is numerous national awards and great kids!

It would be impossible to live in Wilton without being aware of how important Wilton's schools are to the town's life!

The schools in Wilton are amongst the best in the country, and it is a rare weekend that parents don't dedicate to watching their kids compete in sports, perform in plays, or otherwise enjoying extra-curricular school life.

What to do in Wilton

Wilton Parks and Recs has programs for every age, from seniors to toddlers. Most have only a nominal charge, many are free.

The town has over 200 acres of facilities, not to mention 44 developed acres in the Parks System.

The Basics

Population: 18,633

Square Miles: 27

Access:

I-95

Rt 7

Merritt Pkwy

Metro-North

60 Minutes to NYC

35 Minutes to New Haven

Local bus service to Norwalk

203-858-4853

DagnyEason@gmail.com

DagnysRealEstate.com

